

—Staff Photo by Charles O'Rork Jr.] ORLANDO'S FIRST SOAP BOX DERBY PROVES SUCCESS—Pictured above is a view from the starting ramp on East Concord Avenue showing a part of the huge crowd that attended the First Annual Soap Box Derby for Orlando

. Below, the youngster with the happy grin is none other than Master Ralph Schnur, the first champion, who piloted his sleek Coca-Cola sponsored craft to victory over 52 other competitors. Young Schnur will receive a free trip to Akron, Ohio, to compete in National Derby Race, besides winning several other outstanding prizes.

